P.M. _____
TIME A.M. _____

On April 26, 2007, the defendants, DiCamillo and Souza, pleaded guilty before Your Honor to federal offenses; Fusco pleaded on May 9, 2007. Thereafter, preparation of the offense conduct details was assigned to U.S. Probation Officer Brandon Maxon.

Mr. Maxon has advised that due to the ongoing investigation and upcoming trial of other defendants, to date the Government has not provided the information necessary to prepare the offense conduct details in this case, which has caused delays in the presentence investigations. In view of the scheduled sentence dates and our obligation to the Court to conduct the investigations and timely disclose the reports to all parties, we respectfully request adjournments of the sentence dates until such time that the Government is able to provide the information to allow the investigations to proceed. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Respectfully Submitted,

Tony Garoppolo
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
